

2012 Australian Children's Content

Supporting Australian producers in the international marketplace

2012 Australian Children's Content

Screen Australia is pleased to present a cross-section of Australian companies who specialise in the creation of children's content for international audiences.

You'll find information about some of our country's most talented practitioners, along with contact details and notes on their projects.

We support the development and production of Australian film, television, documentary and interactive media projects.

Australia has co-production treaties with Canada, China, Germany, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Singapore, South Africa and the UK, and MOUs with France and New Zealand.

Moody Street Kids production

Established in June 2002, Moody Street Kids specialises in creating, developing and producing original children's animated television series for a variety of major television networks. We are currently in production on the children's animated comedy series SheZow (Ch10). Other recent credits include Flea-bitten! (Ch9), Sumo Mouse (Ch10/ABC), g2g (Ch9) and Faireez (Ch10). Following the international success of these shows the company has now expanded beyond children's animation to include a more diverse range of media content from live-action television series to feature films, telemovie, comedy and multi-platform content.
